CITY FATHERS IN SESSION

Plans Discussed for Street Improvement. Discuss Plans for Purchasing Improved Road Machinery.

The city council met in regular session last night, with President Harris in the chair.

Aldermen Schmidt, Matthews, Porter, Hendricks and Clark were present.

Bills of various amounts were read and approved.

The ordinance committee was requested to define width of roadways and report the same at the next meeting. This was ordered on a petition which contemplates the ultimate widening of the roadway on Beach street.

A petition was received from A. W. Wells, requesting that he be allowed to cut the limbs from the trees in front of his residence on Magnolia avenue to permit the easy passage of his auto to the garage. On motion the petition was tabled. The tree in question is the one which has a long lateral branch extending over the parkage and is photographed by visitors often, probably, than any scene in the city.

A communication was received from D. D. Rogers relative to his assessment for the sea wall and fill in front of his Beach street property. On motion of Councilman Hendricks it was tabled.

The ordinance to regulate hacks, automobiles and other conveyances for hire and all conveyances used in the city of Daytona was called up and read. It was moved by A. L. Hendricks and seconded by A. L. Schmidt that same be passed on its second reading.

An effort was made to incorporate north Beach street in the fire limits. After a lengthy discussion the proposed ordinance was referred back to the ordinance committee.

A communication from William A. Whitman, of New York, relative to a waterworks and sewer system was read. On motion the clerk was ordered to notify the firm that plans had been virtually accepted.

Councilman Schmidt reported that two extension ladders had been bought for the use of the fire department. A 32-foot ladder has been placed in the fire hall on north Beach street and a 36-foot ladder was placed in the fire hall in the rear of the City Hall. These ladders cost $9 each.

Messrs. Clark, Porter and Rix were appointed a committee to investigate the practicability of placing 12 inch pipes at various places on Beach street in order to obtain water from the river in case of fire.

The tax books were examined and ordered accepted and approved.

On motion of Alderman Matthews it was ordered that bids be advertised for the mining of 2,000 or more yards of rock to be used in paving the streets.

Alderman Hendricks suggested that the Street committee take steps which would result in the widening of the road bed of Beach street and the building of a parkage on the west side of said street in order that trees of some kind might be set out.

E. G. Richardson, representing the Good Roads Machinery Co., of Kennett Square, Penn., addressed the council and made a liberal offer of a road crusher to the city.

Moved by Alderman Matthews, seconded by Alderman Clark that the Street committee get up specifications and advertise for bids for getting out 2,000 or more yards of rock. Carried.

Moved by Alderman Matthews, seconded by Alderman Hendricks that the City purchase rock crushing outfit from C. M. Scott according to specifications at price of $2,125 delivered, the City paying $500 down, if satisfactory, and balance at $500 a year at 6 percent interest, same to be delivered by April 30, 1905. Carried.

The Council adjourned subject to recall for a special meeting which may be held Thursday evening next.

Dr. and Mrs. Waggoner and Miss Waggoner left for their home in Corry, Pa. today. The family have been guests of The Hayard since November.

W. S. Dibble and wife, Marshall, Miss Johnson, Miss D. A. Johnson, H. Johnson, Wilmington, Del.; Howard Trumbo, San Francisco, are guests of The Palmetto.

A pleasant party of young ladies, guests of the Seaside Inn, are: Miss Lulu M. McKane, of Lake City, Miss Beulah J. Wallace, of Frankfort, Ind., and Miss Alice Kyle, of Kyle, O.

Dr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Paine, Miss Dorothy C. Paine, and Mrs. Flora C. Which form a pleasant family party at Surf Crest. Dr. Paine is well known not only in Daytona but all over the State.

BIG CATCH OF FISH YESTERDAY

Blue Fish, Whiting and Sheephead Galore Were Caught by the Fishermen Yesterday.

The largest catch of fish reported so far this season was made yesterday by Dr. Jas. H. Paine, of Cleveland, and H. H. Packard, of Detroit, while fishing from Keating's pier. These gentlemen landed over fifty-eight in the afternoon, all being whiting or blue fish.

E. G. Irwin, of Danville, Ill., a guest of The White House, is said to be the most expert fisherman at Daytona Beach. He uses at all times a red and red, and invariably has good luck. Yesterday he landed thirty blue fish and whiting and he also secured a sturgeon.

The largest catch made yesterday in weight was fifty-one sheephead, weighed 175 pounds, caught by Walter Sweeney, H. C. Howard, of Lebanon, O., Wm. Frens, of Frankford, Ind., and C. B. Turner, of Marshal, Mich. These were caught from the Halifax river and several of the fish were very large ones, weighing from six to eight pounds.

On The Clarendon Inn pier several good strings of fish were caught, and at least fifteen persons were angling there at high tide. Several bass were caught, among the lot being one weighing twenty pounds.

A BIG CATCH OF FISH AT KEATING'S PIER.

A LACONIC CORRESPONDENCE.

It is said that the celebrated German toolman, Schleiermacher, was rather inclined to save than to spend money. He was at one time quite ill and sent for a renowned physician, Dr. Grate, who was court physician at the time and whose son became the great oculist. Schleiermacher recovered, and when fully restored to health he sent a polite note to Dr. Grate, expressing his gratitude and enclosing 4 louis d'or, begging the physician to accept this small sum as a token of his appreciation of the services which had been rendered him.

The following day he received his gold pieces again, accompanied by the following laconic note from the great physician: "The poor I cure for nothing. The well-to-do pay me according to the regular 'medicine tax.' The rich reward me lavishly, according to their pleasure."

Thereupon the clergyman sat down and sent Dr. Grate this still more laconic answer: "The 4 louis d'or are received back with gratitude. The poor Schleiermacher!"

Gastric and Nervous Vertigo.

The most common forms of vertigo are the gastric and the nervous. Gastric vertigo is sometimes induced by a very slight disorder of the stomach. The patient may feel a sudden swimming at the head; objects may seem to revolve; he totters and perhaps falls. There may be nausea, faintness, headache, visual hallucinations and buzzing in the ears, but there is no deafness nor any danger of a loss of consciousness. Gastric vertigo is cured by treatment directed to the cause.

Nervous vertigo may come from nervous exhaustion resulting from various causes—intellectual strain or an immoderate use of tobacco, alcohol or tea. The symptoms are much the same as in gastric vertigo. They are felt strongly in an elevated position—by the preacher in the pulpit or the speaker on the platform. As in gastric vertigo, the treatment must be directed to the cause. But patients need not fear an attack of paralysis or of apoplexy.

Lamps Used Before Candles. Large ones used before candles.

They date back almost as far as history goes and were common in ancient Egypt, China, Assyria, Greece and Rome. Lamps from the Greek lamps, a torch, and candle, from kandel, the Egyptian word for a common lamp, originally meant the same thing, and the Moslem candlestick held oil lamps, not candles, as we now use the word.

Man early improved on the torches of the Homeric age and caught the idea of obtaining light from porous fiber soaked in animal or vegetable oils. Lamps of brass, bronze and stone have been found in the pyramids and in ancient Indian temples, and common terra cotta ones were in general use for domestic purposes in Greece in the fourth century B. C. The earliest candles we hear of were those of the ancient Romans made of rushes coated with fat or wax.

Bells and Bees.

It is a foolish notion to suppose that the ringing of bells or "tanging" of tin pans will cause a swarm of bees to settle. The real origin of this custom dated back to the reign of Alfred the Great, who, in order to prevent disputes regarding the ownership of a swarm, ordered that the owner should always ring a bell when his bees swarmed, and ever since then the good farmer's wife has been rushing out with ringing bells whenever the bees swarmed, and the fact that they settled verified, in her own mind, the belief that the bell did it.

Dry Humor.

An eastern rheumatic who was visiting in southern Arizona was asked by the editor of one of the local dailies what he thought of that country.

"Wonderful dry air," said the invalid.

"Yes, everything is always as dry as dust out here," said the editor. "By the way, while you're stopping here for your health you ought to let me send you my paper."

Too Heavy.

"He's a very tiresome talker. He weighs his words so."

"Yes, and he has another fault sometimes peculiar to people who weigh their words. He gives too generous measure."—Philadelphia Press.

Boat Yard Notes.

Chas. McDonald seems to have an abundance of work on hand at the boat yard at present. Several boats have been hauled up for the purpose of making needed repairs, and the two large buildings used for housing boats will probably soon be filled.

A Fay & Boyne engine is being installed in J. W. Johnson's launch, Spruce Creek.

A 30-foot speed launch, built on lines similar to the Grant Ferris, Jr., will be built for Commodore White this summer. The new boat will have a 35 h. p. engine installed.

E. T. Conrad's Winkle is being repainted and generally overhauled. A 20-foot launch is nearly completed for Frank Dittman.

Mr. McDonald has just received a 1 h. p. Eclipse engine, which he has on exhibit at the yard.

Musical at the Seaside Inn.

A musicale was given Sunday at the Seaside Inn, which was much enjoyed by the large number of guests present.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace E. Stewart were assisted by Mr. and Chas. Wilson, violin and cello, Mrs. F. L. Lyon, soprano, Miss Mae MacFarlane, pianist, Mrs. J. S. Hawkins, contralto.

Misses Louise and Elizabeth Maud left for their home in Cincinnati today.

John J. Raipo, a member of the firm of Jeffras Cloak Company, one of the largest houses in Cincinnati, is a guest of The Despland.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Le Grand Graves entertained the following party—Mr. and Mrs. Clements and little daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Marguer, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. M. K. Anderson, Miss Mary Keene Graves, Mr. and Mrs. Blaklee, Mr. and Mrs. Cushing, Miss Jennie Jenkins, Miss Lillian Shields, Miss Elinor Hugos, and Miss Florence Blaklee with a trip up the Tomoka river and a picnic at Tomoka landing. The day was perfect and all had a most delightful time.

Something Just as Good.

"Young man," said the girls' father, "have you any visible means of support?"

"Why—aw—none that are visible to the naked eye," replied the young man hesitatingly. "I am one of the invisible specialists of the health department."—Chicago Tribune.

No Waiting For Breakfast.

Bayler—Married life isn't what it used to be, Simon. You're right. Since the kitchen stove has been supplied by a gas range there's no waiting as there used to be in the morning, soothed by the sweet thought that your wife is at work building the fire. Boston Transcript.

Needs a Preter.

The Count—Did her father acquire his money honestly? "Miss Bright certainly, oh, yes." If he did not I suppose you would not marry her. The Count—Not at all. If he acquired it dishonestly he would probably be too stupid to give any of it away. New York Times.

His Ancestor.

Mrs. Jones—You ought to be ashamed of yourself and to go to work. The Count—Mamma, if nature has fitted me to get along without work, why should I struggle against my manifest destiny?

Flashing Watchman.

"This is the place in a ship where the voyager may be at risk. This watchman is discovered if during a bad Atlantic storm, when he went down to the bath-room, tumbled into a warm sea bath and floated. The vessel was performing the most amazing antics, but the sailor in the bath kept its usual gravity, and the latter floated with a smile upon his bosom."—London Chronicle.

A Bad Cheeser.

"Yes," said the cheerful idiot, "there is one social custom that politeness cannot tolerate."—London Chronicle.

What, for instance?

"What, for instance?" asked the first citizen in the hope that the idiot was floundering with a bad idea.

"Rascals," replied the cheerful idiot, "flashing glowingly." Baltimore American.

Boredom.

"Is genuine boredom," asks a witty little journal.

An other reply: "We have not time to investigate the subject, but we are inclined to think that it is. At all events, our commentators are wonderfully smart."—London Chronicle.

Practical.

"Rather cold blooded person, isn't he?"

"Call him cold. Say, that fellow can attend a ball game without getting excited."—New York Press.

A person is always startled when he hears himself seriously called out for the first time."—C. W. Holmes.

Really Reminded.

Amble the small stove who is not by any means the pink of perfection. Oh, Mily, how sensible you are. Your nice good little sister and brother can never get cold. Mily caustically. But I can soon teach them.—London Tatler.

Free.

White frost is the ordinary form of snow. Black frost means when the cold is so intense as to freeze vegetation and cause it to turn black without the formation of hoarfrost.

Something Just as Good.

"Young man," asked the girl's father, "have you any visible means of support?"

"Why—aw—none that are visible to the naked eye," replied the young man hesitatingly. "I am one of the microbe specialists of the health department."—Chicago Tribune.

No Waiting For Breakfast.

Baxter—Married life isn't what it used to be. Sisson—You're right there. Since the kitchen stove has been supplanted by a gas range there's no such thing as lying in bed in the morning, soothed by the sweet thought that your wife is at work building the fire.—Boston Transcript.

His Argument.

Mrs. Jones—You ought to be ashamed of yourself not to go to work. The Tramp—Madam, if nature has fitted me to get along without work why should I struggle against my manifest destiny?

Fighting Seasickness.

There is one place in a ship where the voyager may be at rest. This writer discovered it during a mid-Atlantic storm, when he went down to the bathroom, tumbled into a warm sea bath and floated. The vessel was performing the most amazing antics, but the water in the bath kept its usual gravity, and the bather floated with a smile upon its bosom.—London Chronicle.

A Bad Chasm.

"Yes," said the cheerful idiot, "there is one social chasm that politeness cannot bridge."

"What, for instance?" asked the tired citizen in the hope that the idiot was threatened with a lucid interval.

"Sarcasm," replied the cheerful idiot, laughing ghoulishly.—Baltimore American.

Hereditary.

"Is genius hereditary?" asks a scientific journal.

An editor replies: "We have not time to investigate the subject, but we are inclined to think that it is. At all events, our youngsters are wonderfully smart."

Fright.

"Rather cold blooded person, isn't he?"

"Cold blooded! Say, that fellow can attend a ball game without getting excited."—New York Press.

A person is always startled when he hears himself seriously called old for the first time.—O. W. Holmes.

Easily Remedied.

Auntie (to small niece who is not by any means the pink of perfection)—Oh, Milly, how naughty you are! Your nice, good little sister and brother can never be so bad. Milly (sincerely)—But I can soon teach them.—London Tatler.

When You Lose Your Taste.

"When people lose their taste," said a physician, "they retain their old likes and dislikes just the same. Miss Smith, for instance, can't tell a slice of roast beef from a fried onion, but she disliked onions before her taste went, and therefore she won't eat them now. People lose their taste through severe illnesses, and with the loss of taste the loss of smell nearly always goes; hence queer, cruel practical jokes. I know a woman without smell to whom a pint of onion juice was sent in a cologne bottle. She deluged herself with this onion juice and appeared in a crowded heated ballroom.

"To a man without taste or smell all cheeses must be alike, yet old Brownlow won't touch limburger. He says it would make him ill, and probably it would. It is very odd to hear those deficient people praising and condemning food and drink. They do it, though. They do it as heartily as you or I. I have seen old Brownlow send away in disgust a glass of white wine, claiming it was corked, while at the same time he ate calmly an added egg."—Baltimore Herald.

The Confusion of Wives.

Occasionally the excess of wives in Utah leads to amusing consequences, as when one of the apostles invited a visiting gentle to dinner. The guest lost the address and looked up the apostle in the directory. He observed that his hostess, though she answered for him, and presently he heard her at the telephone.

"Oh, Emma! Is John living at your house this week? Is he expecting somebody to dinner today? Very well. The gentleman will be there in a few minutes."

Then returning to the stranger she handed him a paper slip.

"You came to the wrong house, sir. This is the address you want."

On another occasion a little girl came running into the parlor while a visitor was calling.

"Mamma, mamma! Papa wants his suit case packed. He is going to live with Aunt Emma this week."—Leslie's Monthly.

Meats and Digestion.

Of all known meats veal is the hardest to digest, requiring five hours and thirty minutes. The Italians are a happy people. They are healthy and hopeful. Their favorite meat is veal. Veal in the New York markets must weigh exactly 120 pounds to be the carcass to be perfect. That is the standard of quality and price. All sorts of tricks are resorted to to hit the mark precisely. The question is, What is best for the human race, food that requires a long time to digest or a short time? Roast beef is digested in three hours. We Americans are great eaters of pork, which is nearly as hard to digest as veal, requiring five hours and fifteen minutes. We are a nation of dyspeptics, reveling in fresh bread, which takes three hours and fifteen minutes. China and Japan live on rice, which digests in one hour.—New York Press.

Pulling Outch Feathers.

A man who runs an ostrich farm, asked the other day as to the method of gathering the feathers, admitted that they were pulled out of the birds once in every eight months. Was the process painful?

"Well," he replied, "about equal to pulling out your eyeteeth." A good many ladies who wear ostrich feathers do so in the belief that they are thereby serving the cause of humanity. As a matter of fact, they are encouraging the most cruel and barbarous torture which man can inflict upon a bird.—Sporting and Dramatic News.

Coined in Bedlam.

The phrase "to sham Abraham" was coined in Bedlam, or Bethlehem hospital, where there was at one time an Abraham ward, the inmates of which upon certain days were permitted to go out as licensed beggars on behalf of the hospital. These mendicant inmates were known as "Abraham men," and their success in invoking the pity of the charitable was such that they had many unlicensed imitators, who, when discovered, were said "to have shammed Abraham."

Dragging the Anchor.

"I see Newlywed at the club quite often since his baby came. I thought he was firmly anchored to a home life." "He was, but at the first squall he began to drag his anchor."

A Cleveland Lunch Party.

A party of guests from The Cleveland Club, who had been invited to the lunch party, were today and went up to the Tomoka River hotel, made this morning at the hotel, it may reasonably be supposed that every guest in the State gathered in the club of the Tomoka and welcomed a welcome to the visitors.

On the trip the first edition of the Tomoka Times was issued, which, judging from the pen and ink sketches and the wireless telegraph news, promises to exceed any paper in the State. The editor's name could not be ascertained for a certainty, but it is evident that Capt. G. E. Brown, of Portland, Me., is the editor. Adm. R. Cox, of Nema, Egypt, is the cartoonist.

These in the party were: Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Chubb, Portland, Me.; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Liddell, Portland, Me.; Mr. C. Campbell and daughter, Bainbridge, O.; C. C. McLean, Coopers Point, Pa.; Capt. and Mrs. G. E. Brown, Portland, Me.; Mrs. S. M. S. Brown, Maine; Capt. Barnett, Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. E. F. Parks and Mrs. Parks, Toledo, O.; Mr. C. C. Butler, Ellettsville, Ind.; Mr. G. E. Green, Dayton, Ohio.

Gen. E. Pollard had a bicyclist taken from the porch of his residence Sunday evening. Yesterday he went to Orlando on a motorcycle and caught the thief, a white man, with the wheel. He was unable to find an officer and allowed the man to escape.

A Cleveland Launch Party.

A party of guests from The Cleveland chartered the launch Moya yesterday and went up the Tomoka.
From remarks made this morning at the hotel it may reasonably be supposed that every "gator in the State gathered on the shores of the Tomoka and bellowed a welcome to the visitors.

On the trip the first edition of the Tomoka Times was issued, which, judging from the pen and ink sketches and the wireless telegraph news, promises to excel any paper in the State. The editor's name could not be ascertained for a certainty, but it is evident that Capt. Geo. E.
Brown, of Portland, Me., is the editor. Asher R. Cox, of Xenia, Egypt, is the cartoonist.

Those in the party were: Mr. and Mrs. M. Churchill, Chicago, Ill.; Mr.
and A. C. Libby, Portland, Me.; T.
C. Campbell and daughter, Bainbridge, O.; C. C. Holliar, Cooperstown, Penn.; Capt. and Mrs. Geo. E.
Brown, Portland, Me.; Mrs. Somerville, Mass.; Capt. Burnett, Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. J. R. L. Parks and Miss
Parks, Toledo, O.; Mrs. C. Ruber, Joliet, Ill.; Asher R. Cox, Xenia, Egypt; Mrs. S. B. Green, Daytona, Fla.

Geo. E. Pollard had a bicycle stolen from the porch of his residence Sunday evening. Yesterday he went to Ormond on a motorcycle and caught the thief, a white man, with the wheel. He was unable to find an officer and allowed the man to escape.

The are light on Third avenue, spoken of in yesterday's paper as not burning but one hour, is one of the new lights recently put in by the Electric Light Company, and has not been turned over to the city yet.
The light there and the other new lights put in are now being tested preparatory to turning them over.

Cause and Effect.

Mrs. Dobson-Bridget told me she saw Mr. and Mrs. Hobson going to church this morning. I wonder what's the matter? Mr. Dobson—Why, either Mr. Hobson has had another attack of heart trouble or Mrs. Hobson has a new hat.

Why We Have One Sided Men.

Faculties must be exercised or they will not grow. Nature is too good an economist to allow us to keep any faculty or function which we do not employ. We can have just what we use and that will constantly increase.
Everything else will be gradually taken away from us. Man becomes strong and powerful and broad just in proportion to the extent and healthfulness of the activity of his faculties, and it must not be one sided, not an exercise of one or two faculties or one set of faculties, or the man will topple over.
Balance in life comes from the healthful exercise of all the faculties. One reason why we have so many one sided men in this country is because they pursue one idea, exercise one side of their nature, and of course they cannot retain their balance. This is one of the curses of specialities.
They are a good thing for the race,
but death to the individual who pursues his specialty at the expense of the development of the all around man. O. S. Marden in Success Magazine.

Needed No Introduction.

"It pays sometimes to know a little of the family history of your clients," said a business woman the other day.
"It would have saved me from making a blunder if I had known the relations that formerly existed between two men who met in my office. Their business was practically of the same nature, and as I was obliged to leave them together for a few minutes while I attended to some telephone calls I thought it would be more agreeable if I introduced them. They responded rather stiffly, but I put that down to temperament and went into my inner office. When I returned a quarter of an hour later the younger man dispatched his business as quickly as possible and got out. The other said:
"I was not aware that you were acquainted with my ex-brother-in-law."
"Brother-in-law? I asked stupidly.
"Yes. My sister got a divorce from him last summer."—Brooklyn Eagle.

Schools In France.

The French system of education is intensely national. Its plan is exactly the opposite from our own school system. With us the local community controls primary schools. In France the local community has no voice in the matter. The French system is the most centralized, the most strictly regulated, the most autocratic and the farthest removed from democratic ideas of any school system in existence.
The exact uniformity of the schools is almost unbelievable. The minister of instruction, sitting in his office in Paris, can tell at any moment just what fable of La Fontaine each child of a certain age throughout the whole of France is reciting. Teachers are not allowed any latitude at all. The result is to leave both teachers and scholars almost completely lacking in mental originality.—F. A. Vanderlip in Scribner's.

DAYTONA is situated upon the west bank of the Halifax River at its narrowest and midway between its source at Biscayne Bay and its outlet at Mosquito Inlet. It is in latitude 29, seventy-four miles from St. Augustine and one mile from the Atlantic Ocean, and is acknowledged to be without a rival for beauty among the villages of the South. Its site is upon what is known as high land, which was once covered by a forest with a most royal growth of majestic forest trees, and among these trees is the town of today, with its beautiful cottages and well graded walks and streets. The result is that all along the wide avenues that intersect the town are lovely live and water oaks and hickories, many of them draped with graceful festoons of the gray Spanish moss, that overarch the street and walks, and among these are interspersed tall tropical palmettos, glossy-leaved magnolias, fragrant bay and coral-berried holly, and many other varieties, while in many places the wild grape, the trumpet vine and the angelica climb and cling among the branches forming shady bowers and adding grace and beauty.

The town lies parallel with the Halifax River, and extends for nearly two miles along the shore. This river is the delight of the angler and the yachtsman and forms one of the town's greatest attractions.

The main avenues that run parallel with or intersect the river are all ten feet wide, except Beach street, which is about sixty-five feet, but has a half mile of open, beautiful water abutting upon its eastern side, where the salt waves ebb and flow and along and across which comes the cooling, invigorating and health-giving breezes from off the wide Atlantic, which temper and render the Halifax climate one of the most perfect in the world. Daytona has many miles of well graded, macadam and shelled roads and streets, rendering it the

and added to these, but a mile away are thirty miles of smooth, hard beach, that affords an unrivalled course for long distance cycling and driving or automobile racing. No town of equal size, North or South, numbers so many wheelmen, and cycling is a favorite pastime with the tourists summer and winter.

The Beautiful Cottages that have been erected during the past years and are being built are rendering Daytona as famous for its fine homes as for its beautiful river, trees and avenues, and they are adding yearly to its attractions.

Not the least of these attractions to those securing homes in the South and ranking second only to healthfulness and perfection of climate, is the fact that its population is chiefly composed of cultivated and intelligent people, accustomed to the refinement of home and social life. Added to these features are good churches, good public and private schools, stores, hotels, laundry, meat markets, novelty works, an opera house, electric lights for street and house illumination, a good telephone system, ice factory, Lily Water Works, and hot and cold baths, etc., and everything else can be procured that is necessary to make life comfortable. An important feature in the healthfulness of this town is the

Water Supply
which is derived from numerous flowing wells, of which there are probably 300 in the corporate limits. This flow is secured by boring wells to the depth of from 80 to 120 feet, passing through several strata of rock, and this depth assures purity from all surface contamination. The water is slightly impregnated with magnesia and iron, and holds sulphur in the shape of gas, which soon passes away.

The Population of Daytona proper is about 1,800. Added to this is a suburban population on main shore and peninsula of about 1,000 at Kingston, Blake, Old Seabreeze or Goodall, Seabreeze and Silver Beach, which are properly a part of the town and population.

Daytona Beach
lies one mile east of the town. It is approached by three good bridges over the river and well-graded avenues, and is the principal summer resort south of St. Augustine. It has more tourists during the summer than all other places south of that city combined, and is also becoming a favorite winter resort. The beach is wide, firm and smooth, by many considered the finest in the world, and the surf bathing is safe and excellent summer and winter. People who have tried Northern and Western summer resorts declare that there are none so perfect in comfort as Daytona beach.

Automobile Race Meet.
The Florida East Coast Automobile Association conducts an annual race meet on the beach, which has now a universal reputation as the greatest automobile race course in the world. The Daytona-Ormond Beach is hard as macadam, and an ideal stretch of thirty or more miles without a break makes it the natural racing ground for America.

At low tide the beach is bare for 300 feet and neither carriage wheel, bicycle or pedestrian can make a hardly visible imprint on the smooth and well-packed sand. It is no uncommon sight to see sail-rigged bicycles speeding with the velocity of the wind before a stiff breeze along the smooth beach, thus affording the most exhilarating sport known to man. Besides these, miles of hard-shelled, palm-fringed boulevards bring the lovers of the wheel and vehicles into direct touch with the mainland over the broad bridges which span the splendid Halifax River.

The beach from the sandy bluffs to the lowest point at oblique, measures about 500 feet, and the average depth of the surf measures about two feet. A continuous gentle swell rolls in from the ocean from one to two feet in depth under normal conditions, making the beach an attractive and absolutely safe place for surf-bathing. Here the infant as well as the grey-haired veteran of many summers, can safely enjoy the luxury of a sea bath throughout the larger part of the year, while the strong and expert swimmer, can venture out further to test his strength and skill in battling with the inexhaustible powers of the mighty ocean.

The Peninsula
lying between river and ocean is one-half mile wide, and is being rapidly improved, and there are many fine cottages and several good hotels, a opera house, two ocean piers, beach pavilion and a large casino.

A Remarkable Feature
at Daytona has been the yearly improvement in the style and value of the buildings that are being erected or homes. Men of capital of the North and West have become awakened to its advantages for winter residences, and valuable lots are being purchased and costly houses, beautiful in design and finish, are being erected, and beautiful homes, the abodes of wealth and culture are multiplying. Seabreeze (City Beautiful) and Goodall are settlements on the Ocean side of the peninsula across the Halifax River from Daytona.

At the foot of Ocean Boulevard, Seabreeze, a pier reaches 600 feet across the beach into the swelling surf of the ocean. This pier is a favorite resort of those who delight in the sport of fishing. The surf here abounds in trout, pompano, yellowtail, cavalle, whiting, drum, sheepshead and many other varieties of edible fish. During the fall season the famous sea bass affords royal sport, and it has been no uncommon occurrence to land a thousand pounds of this gamey fish in an afternoon. Individuals of them ranging from fifteen to thirty-five pounds in weight. Not only does the ocean offer this splendid sport but the Halifax River, only half a mile back of the ocean, is equally famous for its fine fishing, and the varieties that abound in the ocean are present in the river.

Hunting and fishing good. Experienced guides and dogs may be had at reasonable prices.
